Sievers responded by saying that he would check the operating paper to make sure an election process can be started before the seat is officially empty and move forward with it once Jon has officially said he is retiring.
K. Jones also asked about the progress of staggering terms for AP Council members since there are so many terms ending in 2018. C. Sarao and R. Sievers stated that that will be completed soon after the elections to fill vacant seats.

Sarao stated that K. Jones would update the draft and send it to the entire AP Council; after the Council has received the final draft, they should let C. Sarao know if there are any other changes to be made; if there are no additional changes received before the next AP Executive Council meeting on November 9, the letter will be finalized and sent to the Chancellor and President.

C. Sarao asked if there is any interest in starting up the AP happy hour again; it was decided to have happy hour at the Underground on the Island at 4:30 p.m. on November 3.

C. Sarao asked the Council if they are interested in inviting Chancellor Colwell to address the Council at one of their meetings; everyone thought it would be a good idea; C. Sarao stated that she will extend the invitation.

A Council member stated that it was announced that SIUE would be offering early retirement incentives in response to the budget cuts; is this something that is approved by the BOT; is that something that SIUE is doing on their own; is that something that SIUC could also do.
