

Chancellor's Advisory Review Board

The board is composed of eight voting members. Members who provided service during the 2008-2009 academic year were:

Lori Stettler, administrative/ professional staff representative

Karen Waldron, civil service representative

Nazeih Botros and Judith Green, faculty representatives

LaCharles Ward, undergraduate student representative

Jo Beth Weber, Associate General Counsel, was also appointed by the Chancellor to serve as advisor to the Board.

All appointees attended, participated in, and completed the required training prior to becoming voting members. Nazeih Botros and Judith Green were selected as co-chairs and Lori Stettler was appointed as secretary.

The Chancellor's Advisory Review Board convenes when it has appeals to review, but, consistent with Section V.C. of the Board's operating paper, "no earlier than two weeks after the beginning of each academic semester, and no later than two weeks prior to the end of each academic semester." The Executive Committee met five (5) times during the 2008-2009 academic year and reviewed a total of 17 cases:

November 20, 2008 (6 cases)

January 27, 2009 (2 cases)

February 5, 2009 (1)

February 20, 2009 (2 cases)

April 7, 2009 (6 cases).

The Executive Committee considered the Student Judicial Affairs' sanction excessively severe in three of the cases and reduced it; however, it did not deem any of the cases to warrant a hearing. One (1) appeal is currently awaiting Executive Committee review.

Chancellor Advisory Review Board members Judith Green and Lori Stettler represented the Board at a May 1, 2009 Judicial Affairs Symposium held at SIUC in the Student Center. The purpose of the symposium was to solicit ideas and suggestions for improving the university's current student judicial system, being proactive, assisting students in avoiding violations, and improving their experiences once they are found in violation.

The board has not yet convened for the Fall 2009 semester.
