VI. Reports
A. Chair – Next meeting with Chancellor: Monday, February 21st at 9am. Requesting agenda items, send before Friday. Will be discussing survey results from December concerning leadership training. Looking to have both a leadership and mental health training this semester and it will be offered to A/P and Civil Service employees.
B. Board of Trustees – February 10, 2022 – T. Bryson highlighted and shared items that were discussed and approved.
C. Human Resources – R. Colombo reported that 1095C’s will be mailed before February 28th. Also, HR will have a Q and A for informational purposes on Wednesday, February 23rd at the Faculty Staff Lounge in the Student Center.
D. Representatives to University Committees – R. Frazier reported the Academic Calendar Committee met yesterday and discussed forecasting for 2027 and the holiday calendar not being approved for 2022 or 2023. This is due to determination of how Juneteenth will be designated. The spring finals calendar is posted and also discussed having a fall break and when that should be.
E. Standing Committees
1. Executive Committee – T. Bryson reported they met on Monday February 14th and set the agenda.

2. Committee on Committee – J. Franklin reported the VCR Search Committee met and narrowed the field to 8 candidates for the committee to interview. T. Bryson reported L. Angel-Post, L. Murphy, and H.D. Motyl were named to the Dean Search Committee for COLA and CAM along with 3 other names that are not members of APSC.

3. Constituency Relations – L. Murphy reported having a Happy Hour next Friday at Hanger 9 (not yet confirmed) and will send out flyer once the location is finalized. They are starting to plan the Spring Constituency Luncheon and wanting recommendations for guest speakers.

4. Operating Paper – W. Clark reported what the sectors will look like using the ones that align with Civil Service. Discussion ensued on particular sectors that house enrollment management and a discrepancy was found on the spreadsheet. This will be fixed and discussed at the March meeting.

5. Staff Benefits/Staff Welfare – K. Stackhouse reported continuing work on the term to continuing policy. An analysis was done and shared with HR.
